

Kasey Baughan

Mobile Developer

kaseypb@stanford.edu

336.705.3169

Spanish Fork, UT

Experience

Ancestry

Oct 2018 – Current

iOS Developer, Lehi, UT

Built new pre-results screen for DNA app (225k monthly active users)
Prototyped and presented app where users pay freelancers to transcribe handwritten documents (family journals, census records, etc.)

Apps Made Fresh

2017 – Oct 2018

iOS/Android Developer, Provo, UT

Shipped 2 iOS apps and 1 Android app as sole engineer while working with UI/UX designer

Argive

2017 – 2018

Data Engineer, Los Altos, CA

Built data pipeline into Airtable with Node.js
10k+ records transferred, 100+ spreadsheets uploaded, 40+ databases

PartnerFusion

2014

iOS Developer, Lehi, UT

Helped build apps that used location tracking, Core Data, cloud storage, integration with Instagram, Foursquare, and Yelp

Education

Stanford

2014 – 2017

Stanford Law School, JD

Federalist Society

BYU

2006 – 2013

Information Systems, MS

Information Systems, Economics, BS, magna cum laude

Projects

iOS, Django

2018

PodTalk, podtalk.app

Podcast app where you can listen to and comment on podcasts in private groups
Features podcast player, Reddit-style comment system, customizable UI schemes

iOS, Android, Django

2016 – 2018

Eggler, goeggler.com

A decentralized Instacart where drivers control pricing, delivery routes, schedule, etc.
Two-sided marketplace app; 80+ screens; Built iOS + Android app (native) and backend

Web, PHP, MySQL

2013

Lawstats

Web app that lets students predict chances of getting into law school
Also lets law school administrators predict chances of applicants attending their school